Anti-Freckle Remedy, Rheumatism Cure Made Here in 1898

HISTORY DEPT.: We've talked about industry in Harrisburg back sixty years ago for the past couple of days and today we stick with the subject.

We've talked of folding beds and tobacco, of lumber mills and bread, and today we go to beauty treatments and cure for rheumatism.

Freckles were scarce among the young ladies before the turn of the century, because in Harrisburg you could get Hallock's Anti-Freckle straight from the feed box.

It was manufactured by William Penn Hallock, Harrisburg druggist, and when the 1898 story was written he had been in business here for 35 years.

"Four years ago," the article stated, "Mr. Hallock introduced and began the manufacture of Hallock's anti-freckle, a facial remedy that within a short time popularized itself the state throughout. . . Its growth considering the limited advertising it has had is indeed remarkable.

"To look back over a four years of its business and note the fact that it is yet in its infancy one can only conclude that the future will grant results of stupendous character. The mail order business averages about 350 boxes per day, so it furnishes employment to quite a number of hands in the laboratory, shipping and printing departments.

"An order recently was received from Seagway, Alaska, which illustrated that its virtues are of superior character. It is also carried in stock and sold by the leading jobbing houses of the country.

"Mr. Hallock as a business man and citizen is an exemplification of high attainments."

Jo R. Pearce of Harrisburg was the discoverer and the manufacturer of Uncle Jo's Rheumatism Cure.

The article says that: "The discoverer of the remedy is neither physician nor chemist. He is a practical business man and for a number of years a sufferer of rheumatism. . .

"He began everything he could gain access to relative to rheumatism, and experimented on himself with numerous formulas. Fortunately after quite a while and after compounding sixteen different drugs, each being within themselves a rheumatic relief, he found the remedy that he sells as Uncle Jo's Rheumatism Cure."

Du Quoin Man Fined Here

A man who gave his name as Robert E. Milan of Du Quoin was fined a total of $38.20 yesterday when he entered a guilty plea to indecent exposure. Arraignment was before Justice of the Peace O. L. Woods following his arrest Thursday night by city police.

Police Chief Ross Lane said the police department had received a number of complaints of a man exposing himself indecently in uptown Harrisburg at nights.

Thursday night such a report resulted in his arrest in his automobile on South Main street just off Poplar.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP) — W. H. Tillery, 79, an invalid, pulled a pistol from under the covers of his bed Friday and chased off two intruders who robbed and beat his wife. The aged man, bed-ridden with a heart ailment for 12 years, shot at the gunmen as they were leaving and apparently hit one of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gee of Carrier Mills suffered injuries believed slight and their auto was badly damaged in an auto crash between Benton and Buckner early Monday morning.

Mr. Gee, board member of the Progressive Mine Workers of America, and Mrs. Gee were en route to Springfield. They reported the weather was foggy and that a car hit them from the rear, knocking their machine into a ditch.

Soviets Assure W. Germany of A-Weapons Ban

Assurance Seen Effort to Promote Communist Plans

BONN (UP) — Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan says Russia would not use nuclear weapons against West Germany in any future war so long as this country used none of its own.

Mikoyan's assurance, in the form of a toast to Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano at a reception here Friday night, appeared to be an effort to promote Communist plans for the de-atomization of Central Europe.

The Soviet official said that even if West Germany joined the Atlantic Pact powers in a war with Russia, Soviet forces would not use nuclear weapons against this country unless the Germans used them first.

Mikoyan's remarks were a reply to a speech in which Brentano said Germany would support a ban on nuclear weapons if it appeared likely to lead to worldwide, controlled disarmament.

The deputy premier spoke as he prepared to drop his role of "Good will ambassador" and plunge into talks with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer which may hold the key to an East-West "summit" conference.

German officials said the two men will discuss disarmament, German reunification, and East-West "summit" talks.

The Germans hoped Adenauer might be able to discover on what terms the Soviets would be willing to accept a heads-of-government meeting.

The recent Soviet refusal to confer jointly with the three Western ambassadors in Moscow has aroused fears here that Russia's leaders are holding back on preparations for a "summit" conference.

On Friday, Mikoyan the highest Soviet official ever to visit here, signed a 750-million dollar trade pact with West Germany.

TRIES TO 'GET TO' IKE — Secret Service agents grabbed a struggling, screaming woman who approached President Eisenhower in Washington, D. C., shouting, "I have to get to him." The woman, identified as Mrs. Edith Finch of Brookline, Mass., is shown screaming from the back of a Secret Service car after she was removed from the Smithsonian Institute where the President was viewing an exhibition of paintings by Winston Churchill. Cardinal Stritch Hospitalized in Rome After Arrival for New Post

ROME (UP) — Samuel Cardinal Stritch, archbishop of Chicago, was hurried to a hospital today suffering from a "painful" arm affliction accompanied by a "circulatory disturbance."

One Vatican source said he understood the Cardinal was suffering from a blood clot in the right arm. This could not be confirmed immediately.

The 70-year-old cardinal arrived here Friday to take up a new post in the highest ranks of the church.

An official announcement from "Chicago House," the residence here for American religious from the Chicago area, said "it has been deemed prudent to hospitalize" the cardinal.

A press conference scheduled for this afternoon at which Cardinal Stritch was to answer questions on his new post was cancelled.

The announcement from Chicago House said: "His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch has been examined for a painful affliction of the upper right fore-arm which is accompanied by a circulatory disturbance which developed aboard ship during the last days of the voyage (from New York aboard the liner Independence).

"It has been deemed prudent to hospitalize him."

Cardinal Stritch, the new prefect of the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, was to have made his first formal appearance as a member of the Roman Curia on Sunday in ceremonies at St. Peter's celebrating the beatification of Spanish Mother Teresa de Jesus Jorret.

Knowland Suffers Four Defeats On Labor Reform Proposals in Senate

WASHINGTON (UP) — Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland served notice today he would demand six more Senate roll calls on his labor reform proposals despite the four defeats he suffered Friday night.

Knowland was trying to attach parts of his "labor bill of rights" as amendments to the welfare fund bill. And Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N. J.), administration spokesman on labor legislation, was preparing to offer a number of administration-backed labor amendments unrelated to the bill.

When the Senate quit Friday night after a 12-hour session, the Knowland amendment still awaiting a vote was one to require unions to admit all employees it represents on the same terms. It would bar unions from discriminating because of race sex or other reasons and from maintaining classes of non-voting members.

The votes Friday night made clear that Republican-led efforts to convert the welfare fund bill into broad labor reform legislation were doomed. Even so, the Republicans thought they were putting the Democrats on the spot.

Knowland was trying to attach parts of his "labor bill of rights" as amendments to the welfare fund bill. And Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N. J.), administration spokesman on labor legislation, was preparing to offer a number of administration-backed labor amendments unrelated to the bill.

Douglas to Offer Tax Cut Measure

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.) says he will introduce a bill soon to reduce taxes by 6 billion dollars.

Douglas said on an AFL-CIO radio program Friday night the recession was "getting worse." He failed to push a 5 billion dollar tax cut through the senate in March.

"A tax cut would indirectly aid the unemployed," Douglas said, "since it would release purchasing power, enable people to buy more, thus causing industry to produce more and hire more workers."

Telephone Calls Threaten Lana Turner, Lawyer

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Telephone calls threatening the lives of actress Lana Turner and her lawyer, Jerry Giesler, today caused Beverly Hills police to continue a "special surveillance" of their homes and the home of Lana's mother, Mrs. Mildred Turner, where the star's 14-year-old daughter, Cheryl, is living.

Giesler told Police Chief Clinton H. Anderson he received three calls during the week, two from women and one from a man, all threatening to "get" him and Lana for the slaying of John Stompano by Lana's daughter.

"We are sending people out from the East to take care of Lana," the man warned Giesler, "and they'll take care of you, too."

The women told Giesler he would be killed because he represented "the people who took Johnny away from us."

Cheryl plunged a carving knife into Stompano — the handsome lover of her mother and former bodyguard of ex-convict Mickey Cohen — as he and Lana argued in her boudoir April 4. The slaying was later ruled "justifiable homicide" and Cheryl was released Thursday and given in temporary custody to Mrs. Mildred Turner under court orders.

Officers indicated the telephone calls might have been a prank but that they were "taking no chances."

Seeks $20,000 for Death of Husband

Sarah Lanton, administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Leo Lanton, seeks $20,000 for his death under the provisions of the Illinois Dram Shop Act.

Her complaint, filed in circuit court by Atty. Lester Lightfoot, names John Molinarolo Jr., Muddy, Morris Stewart, Carrier Mills, and Legion Post 364 at Carrier Mills defendants.

It charges that her husband and Roderick Harris secured liquor from the defendants Sept. 30, 1957, that the two drank it and got drunk, that Harris, driving an auto in which the two were riding on Route 148 toward Thompsonville, ran through the stop sign at Route 34 at a high rate of speed and hit a trailer truck. Lanton died in the crash.

Order Under Ike Plan Stirs Up Controversy

Interpret Action
To Press Officers to Join 'General Staff'

WASHINGTON (UP) — Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy announced Friday he would deny high-level promotions to officers who indulge in "extreme service partisanship."

The move, first formal Pentagon action under President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan, quickly stirred up controversy.

McElroy said officers could not be promoted to lieutenant general, vice admiral, general or admiral without showing they could deal "objectively" with national security matters, in accordance with the President's message to Congress April 3.

Some observers felt the action was aimed at pressing officers to line up behind President Eisenhower's reorganization proposals. It was further interpreted as an effort to persuade high-ranking personnel to pass up command assignments and join the expanded "general staff" called for in the President's plan.

The authoritative Army-Navy-Air Force Journal, an unofficial service publication, reported fear that the order might "jeopardize the integrity of present promotion systems."

"The President's directive opens the way to the possibility for someone close to the secretary of defense to suggest the addition of a name" which has not come through normal promotion channels, the Journal said.

May Seek Staff Duty
It said "another possible danger" was that Army and Air Force colonels and Navy captains might seek staff duty rather than command assignments to prove themselves "team players."

Under the new promotion system, candidates for three and four star rank will be recommended by the service secretaries. Their promotions will be passed on to the White House for submission to Congress only after the defense secretary and the Joint Chiefs of Staff have passed judgment.

The service secretary must certify that officers recommended for promotion have shown "capacity for dealing objectively — without extreme service partisanship — with matters of the broadest significance to our national security."

Paratrooper Jump Called Off

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (UP) — The 101st Airborne Division today called off a 5,300-man jump exercise on grounds possible wind gusts might lead to a repeat of Wednesday's jump which killed five paratroopers.

Maj. John C. Fischer, staff weather officer with the 839th Air Division Command, said the exercise would be postponed 24 hours.

Fischer said a high pressure system over the Great Lakes moving toward warm air off the Gulf of Mexico threatened showers, thunderstorms and wind gusts up to 45 knots.

Before the jump was called off, Maj. Gen. W. C. Westmoreland, 101st commander, said he would parachute 20 minutes ahead of his men to make sure wind conditions were safe.

Congressman Gray Urges Area Contractors To Bid on Federal Building

Cong. Kenneth J. Gray today advised contractors interested in constructing the Federal Building at Benton to contact General Services Administration, 575 U. S. Court House, Chicago, telephone Harrison 7-4700, for specifications. Bids will be opened May 8.

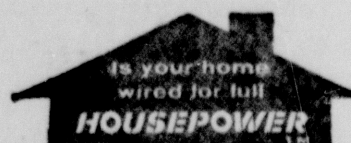

"Have just learned some Southern Illinois contractors had not been advised on construction bids on the Benton Federal Building," Gray said. "Therefore, I seek to advise contractors interested to contact the Chicago source."

Plan Pastures To Get Plenty of Summer Forage

Alternate grazing systems help to produce more milk at lower cost.

Leo Fryman, extension dairy specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says that this system insures plenty of succulent green grass and legumes. And there's a direct connection between the amount of forage cows eat and their milk production.

Divide your pastures into fields the size your herd will graze off in about a week, Fryman suggests. Forage yields can be as much as 15 to 25 per cent higher in alternate grazing systems than in continuous grazing on the same pastures.

Higher yields under alternate grazing may give surplus forage early in the pasture season, the dairy specialist points out. But it can be put into silage or hay to be fed later in the summer when hot weather cuts into pasture yields.

Final Date to Apply for Wool Payments April 30

The final date for filing applications for the 1957 marketing year for wool payments is April 30. All producers who have sold wool and lambs during the '57 marketing year should call at the local ASC office located in the city hall, Harrisburg, if they have not turned in their final settlement papers and complete all necessary work in order to receive payment when payments are to be prepared.

The above information was issued today by E. Pauline Wilkins, acting office manager, of the local ASC office.

Lime, Phosphate, Potash Bring Higher Corn Yields

DIXON SPRINGS — Limestone, phosphate and potash each contributed its share toward raising 1957 corn yields on Dixon Springs Experiment Station plots from 8 to 75 bushels an acre.

Lowest yield of only 8 bushels an acre was on untreated land, says Lee Gard, University of Illinois Station researcher.

Plots treated only with limestone have had 8 tons an acre applied over the past 20 years. The 1957 corn yield on these plots was 37 bushels an acre. This 29-bushel an acre increase for limestone alone resulted from an annual cost of only $1.30 an acre, Gard points out.

Annual addition of 100 pounds of muriate of potash on limed land at a cost of $2.50 increased corn yields another 13 bushels for a yield of 50 bushels an acre.

Putting on 100 pounds of 20% superphosphate at a cost of $2 an acre increased corn yields on limed land 33 bushels for a total yield of 70 bushels an acre.

Last year's corn yield was 75 bushels an acre where limestone, phosphate and potash were added together at an annual fertility cost of $5.80 an acre.

Most farmers will need a corn yield of at least 40 to 50 bushels an acre to "break even" under today's high costs of production, Gard believes. Lime alone is essential, he points out, but a combination works out best in most cases.

Plots in this test carried a four-year rotation of corn, wheat and two years of alfalfa-bromegrass. No nitrogen was added other than that supplied by the legume. During years of adequate moisture, farmers can boost corn yields even higher by adding nitrogen in their fertility program, the researcher says.

This Week at DIXON SPRINGS University of Illinois Experiment Station

(A round-up of the week's work, activities and observations at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station near Robbs in southern Illinois, prepared by H. A. Cate.)

Performance-Tested Bull Sale

Eleven performance-tested Hereford bulls were sold at auction on April 10 at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station for an average price of $478. Buyers paid an average of $465 for five two-year-old bulls, $503 for five three-year-olds and $420 for one four-year-old.

Top Bull to Canada

A two-year-old 1350-pound Polled Hereford brought the top price, going to the Waterloo Cattle Breeding Association, Waterloo, Ontario, for $550. Also purchased by the Waterloo Association at $500 was a three-year-old 1520-pound Polled Hereford.

Best Gaining Bull to Talbert Brothers

Talbert Brothers of Wayne City, Illinois, purchased the best gaining bull of the sale, a 1570-pound three-year-old, for $530. Not only was the Talbert Brothers' bull the top gainer, but he was also the heaviest calf at weaning time, indicating that his dam was a better than average milker.

Bulls Sold on Performance

Bidders at this sale were supplied not with the usual catalog of ancestry, but with a complete weight record from birth until two years of age, as well as type grade and condition grade on each bull. Brisk, confident bidding indicated that the buyers appreciated knowing the record.

All bulls offered were bred and raised on the Station from the herd being used in the North Central States cooperative breeding project for herd improvement. The Dixon Springs Station for the past several years has been selecting for three lines of cattle—fast gaining, early fattening and a control or random-selected line.

S.I.U. Country Column

By Albert Meyer

Peach blossom time arrived in Southern Illinois this week, covering commercial orchard areas with varied shades of pink, depending on the variety of peach trees.

This event means different things to various persons. Most people enjoy their beauty from the standpoint of sightseers. The orchardists see the blossoms primarily as harbingers of a good crop of fruit which they hope to harvest profitably later in the summer.

For plant breeders, such as Jim Mowry, superintendent of the Illinois Horticultural Experiment Station at Southern Illinois University, the occasion means an opportunity to advance the tedious work of developing new and improved varieties of peaches. (The station is a joint project of SIU and the University of Illinois.)

One of the steps in developing a new variety is the mating of one variety having certain desirable characteristics, such as fruit color, with another which has another wanted attribute, such as fruit flavor or date of maturity, in the hope of obtaining a new strain which will bear fruit containing some of the characteristics of both varieties.

When blossoming time comes, Mowry and his helpers are "busy as bees" doing a job of controlled pollination that bees cannot do, because bees are not much concerned with peach tree varieties.

For the sightseers' enjoyment it is desirable to know that the peach variety means differences in color. The Elberta varieties, comprising about three-fourths of the acreage in Illinois peach orchards, have less showy blossoms than some of the earlier varieties because the petals are smaller. To come upon an orchard of mixed varieties emphasizes contrasts and adds to the beauty. Quite often the best sights are on side roads in the orchard region.

'God Delivers His People'

Exodus 11:1-15:18
GOLDEN TEXT: "He saved them for His name's sake, that He might make His mighty power to be known." (Psalm 106:8)

INTRODUCTION—Pharaoh was not unlike many people today in some respects. He held onto the very thing that was destroying himself. There are many people today who know that the thing they are doing is ruining their health, influence, business, or home; and yet, they hold onto that thing.

Pharaoh persecuted the Children of Israel severely in an attempt to destroy them while they were his slaves. He soon saw that this was a hopeless task. Yet, he would not let them go.

God sent ten terrible plagues upon Egypt in an attempt to make Pharaoh see that he must let them go. Pharaoh's heart was hardened more with each plague. Not only did he suffer, but all the people in Egypt had to suffer as a result of Pharaoh's sin. Is it not always thus? One never sins against God and suffers for it alone. He always causes others to suffer, also.

I GOD'S ENEMIES CONDEMN-ED (Ex. 11:1)
Nine terrible plagues had already been sent upon Egypt at the time of this scripture. Because Pharaoh and the people of Egypt had continued to prove themselves to be enemies of God, they were to be visited by one more plague.
The death angel would visit their land.

The first born of all the families in Egypt were to die at midnight.
This was to take place in every household from the king's palace down to the most lowly hut in the land. Remember, God is no respecter of persons.

What an awful cry went up from every home at midnight that night! It was an awful judgment, but it was the only thing left that God could do to get the stubborn Pharaoh to do His will. Sometimes people today make it hard upon themselves and their loved ones by refusing to do God's will.
God still permits even tragedy to enter a home, if that is all He can do to bring people to their senses.

II GOD'S PEOPLE PROTECTED
(Ex. 12:23-28)

The people of Israel were subject to the loving protection of God.
The same is true today. God made provision for His people in the land of Egypt.

When the death angel passed over at midnight, the children of Israel were protected by the blood of sacrificial lambs. Each family was instructed to slay a lamb and sprinkle its blood on the doorposts of the home. God said: "When I see the blood, I will pass over you."

The Jewish people all over the world today still observe the Feast of the Passover. That is, those who do not yet recognize Christ as the Savior, still observe this Feast. Christians believe that Christ became the sacrificial Lamb of God and forever did away with the necessity of slaying animals for blood offerings.

The Children of Israel were soon confronted with another crisis.
They were sent out of the Land of Egypt after the passing over of the death angel. Now, they were faced with the Red Sea before them and Pharaoh's army behind them. What were they to do?

Again God protected His people. He opened up the Red Sea and let the people of Israel cross dry shod. When the army of Pharoah attempted to follow, God let go the waters, and Pharaoh's army was drowned.

CONCLUSION—We are so impatient. We want everything to happen right now. We do not want to wait. God sometimes does work as fast as we want Him to work.
The Children of Israel waited a long time before God delivered them from bondage. However, God did not forsake nor leave them alone. His love was ever present.
Pharaoh with all his might and power could not destroy them.

Today the same God is on His throne, and He is watching over all His people. If you are a Christian, you may be certain that God is watching over and protecting you. If you sin against Him, He Too many pressing responsibilities in the Lord's work. The congregation couldn't afford to have its church painted.

But painted it was!
That was a glorious Saturday—no picnic or ball games, just hours of hard work. And what with the paint supplied at cost by a local dealer, and the brushes loaned by the very painter who might have hoped for the contract—nobody made a nickel!

But the remarkable thing is that nobody in town thought all this remarkable...
You know, Christianity has had a deep influence on the life of a community when we begin to take for granted the real and sacrifice of Christian neighbors. The next step is to add our strength and faith to theirs in the worship and work of the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1)
For his own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Giants Blank Cubs, 2-0, Take First Place; Dodgers Beat Cardinals, 5-3

Musial Smashes Four Hits in 7th Loss for St. Louis

By United Press

The San Francisco Giants can't match those huge Los Angeles crowds but they're in a position today to repeat one of baseball's most famous questions: "Are the Dodgers still in the league?"

Bill Ridgney's astonishing mixture of untold rookies and creaky veterans soared into first place in the National League Friday night when they beat the Chicago Cubs, 3-0, behind Ramon Montant's four-hit pitching. The Dodgers, meanwhile, escaped falling into the cellar when they beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-3, before a crowd of 60,635 that set a league night game record.

San Francisco Manager Bill Rigney is unlikely to repeat Bill Terry's famous question of some 20 years ago—and how it came back to haunt him!—but he has a right to tell the experts they were all wrong again. For these same Giants who lead the league today were chosen almost unanimously to finish in the second division and were picked last in some quarters.

Night of Surprises

It was a night of surprises all around as the Baltimore Orioles scored two runs in the ninth to beat the New York Yankees, 2-1, the Cleveland Indians made it three out of four against the Detroit Tigers with a 12-2 triumph and Bob Rush, 7-24 lifetime against the Philadelphia Phillies, bested Robin Roberts to give the Milwaukee Braves a 4-0 decision.

The Chicago White Sox beat the Kansas City Athletics, 6-5, in 12 innings to end a five-game losing streak, the Washington Senators defeated the Boston Red Sox, 2-0, and the Pittsburgh Pirates scored a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs in other major league activity.

Montant, a 25-year old native of Venezuela, who had a lifetime 5-8 record in the majors before this season, struck out seven and did not walk a batter in posting his second win. The Giants scored their first run off Jim Brosnan when Bob Schmidt tripled and Montant singled in the third inning and added their other run on singles by Willie Mays and Hank Sauer and a sacrifice fly in the seventh.

Musial Gets Four

The huge crowd at Los Angeles saw Stan Musial smash four straight hits to raise his batting average to .553 but that great performance was not enough to prevent the Cardinals from dropping their seventh decision in nine games. Fred Kipp, aided by Ed Roebuck's late-inning relief, picked up the win as rookie Norm Larker showed the way with a two-run triple and a key single.

The crowd surpassed the previous league mark of 51,780 for a night game, set May 27, 1947, in a Dodger-Giant game at New York, and gave Los Angeles 301,865 total attendance for seven games this season.

Coach Fired, Crab Orchard Students Strike

CRAB ORCHARD, Ill. — Crab Orchard High School students displayed a certain type of team spirit Friday.

More than 100 of the school's 145 students refused to attend afternoon classes because their coach was fired for not having a degree.

Superintendent Hubert Fox said coach Bob Gullidge was teaching on a permit. He said the students want to meet with the school board—which advised against renewing his contract.

Fox said he first tried persuasion, then threats of suspension to get the students to return to classes.

"They just looked at me and said we couldn't have school without them," he said.

U. S. Players Displeased at Slim Win Over Soviets

MOSCOW (AP)—American basketball players, displeased with the slim 6-point margin of their victory Friday night over an all-star Russian team, promised that they will win the remaining games of their Soviet tour more easily, starting with tonight's second game here.

The U. S. team, made up of A.A.U. stars, had to come from behind to beat the Russians, 74-68, here Friday night. The victory followed a 61-46 win by Russia in a preliminary game between women's teams.

"The score will never be that close again," said Burdette Halderson, former Colorado star who now plays for the Phillips Oilers and was a key man in the win. "We underestimated the Russians."

Warren Womble, coach of the Peoria Cats who is guiding the American team, also looks for an improved performance tonight.

Former Yale Coach Herman Hickman Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Football coaches and players, the men who knew Herman Hickman best, mourned him today as "a great man" . . . "a great asset to sports and people in general."

The 46-year-old Hickman, an all-ways jovial 300-pounder who loved to eat and looked it, died Friday at Providence Hospital.

He had undergone an operation Monday to remove a gastric ulcer and was recovering satisfactorily until he developed an acute hemorrhage Thursday night.

He rallied Friday morning when he regained consciousness and spoke with his wife, Helen. His condition deteriorated in the afternoon and he died shortly after.

Hickman had been a television and radio sportscaster for the Columbia Broadcasting System in New York since 1952, when he resigned as head football coach at Yale. He had coached at three other colleges before that after playing guard for the University of Tennessee.

His sports career also included three years of pro football with the old Brooklyn Dodgers and some 500 professional wrestling matches. He also was an author, poet, after-dinner speaker and story teller supreme.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at Jacksonville, Fla., where Hickman's mother Mrs. O. M. Howard, lives. Burial will be in Ponte Vedra, Fla., near Jacksonville. Hickman had been living in Oodbridge, Conn., a suburb of New Haven.

Adolph Rupp, Nation's Winningest Coach, to Speak at HTHS Monday

Will Address All-Sports Banquet At Bonnell Gym

Harrisburg sports fans will be able to see and hear "the nation's winningest basketball coach" at the Harrisburg Township high school's all-sports banquet in Bonnell gym Monday evening. He is Adolph Rupp of the University of Kentucky.

The banquet will start at 6:30 p. m. and all reservations are in for this affair. However, persons who desire to hear the talk by Coach Rupp, brought here by the Harrisburg Booster's club, may sit in the bleachers for the program for an admission fee of 50 cents.

Mr. Rupp in 27 years as coach won 651 ball games and lost but 97 for an 85.2 per cent for the years up to the past season. This past winter and spring he had another one of his great teams, which won the NCAA title.

Known as one of the game's most astute and colorful students, the amazing "Man in the Brown Suit" is credited in most quarters with doing more than any other modern tutor to make basketball a national spectator sport. From the very outset of his career at Kentucky which began in 1930, he has introduced or popularized many new and revised trends in the game that have aided materially in making the country basketball-minded. One such innovation was the controlled fast break offensive pattern which since has become the crowd-pleasing trademark of Wildcat cage teams.

The masterful story-teller is equally at home and successful on the banquet and coaching clinic circuit and is in constant demand for speaking engagements in the off-season. Owner of several farms near Lexington on which he maintains one of the finest white-faced Hereford herds in the South, he now is in his sixth term as president of the Kentucky Hereford Association. He also is a grower of burley tobacco, being a director of the Central District Warehousing Corporation, world's largest tobacco marketing association.

Born in Halstead, Kansas, Sept. 2, 1901, Rupp attended the University of Kansas where he played guard under Phog Allen. Following graduation in 1923 he coached high school ball at Marshalltown, Iowa, and Freeport, Ill., before going to Kentucky in 1930.

At the banquet, athletic certificates will be given to those participating in sports. Letter awards will be given at the annual HTHS Honor Day ceremonies.
